Much loved and well maintained by the original owners, this home is a must see. Perfectly situated in an elevated position right opposite beautiful Moss Park/Piney Lakes and in the Applecross High School Zone, this is a wonderful opportunity to secure your family home in a prime location.

Architecturally designed to make the most of the lovely park views from all living areas and with soaring ceilings providing substantial space and light, every room in the home is very generously proportioned.

The home comprises of multiple living zones including an enormous casual living and dining area with vaulted ceilings overlooked by the large, well laid out kitchen at the very heart of the home. The handy shoppers entrance from the double lock up garage into the kitchen provides convenience and a sizeable home office/study completes the living zones of home. The master bedroom with ensuite and walk in robe is tucked away quietly from the generously sized minor bedrooms, family bathroom and huge laundry.

Outdoor living is well catered for with a pretty paved alfresco, reticulated gardens and a lawn area providing plenty of play room for children and pets with room for a
